3rd Sunday of Advent

Gaudete Sunday or the third Sunday of Advent, is a time to rejoice because the Lord is near and the wait for Christmas is almost over. A reflection for this day emphasizes that this joy is not a temporary feeling but a deep-seated assurance in God's presence, even amid hardship or sin. The theme encourages acts of sharing, reconciliation, and living with hope and gentleness, as exemplified by John the Baptist's message to the crowds to share what they have.
