The prayer attributed to St. Francis is simple, but it cuts straight to the heart: "... grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love."

These words are not just poetry; they are a challenge. So often, we wait. We wait to be comforted before we comfort others. We wait to be understood before we listen deeply. We wait to be loved before we open our hearts. And yet, St Francis points us to something deeper: a deliberate choice to love first.

Peace doesn't begin when everything feels right. It begins when we choose to step outside ourselves:

- ◆ to listen when it's hard,
- ◆ to give when it's inconvenient,
- ◆ to love when it's not returned.

Because the truth is: a life spent waiting to be filled will always feel empty. A life poured out in love becomes full in a different, lasting way. Here is the paradox St Francis discovered: when you stop chasing love as something to receive, and start living it as something to give, you encounter it everywhere.

Today, don't wait to be understood.

Don't wait to be loved.

Don't wait to be comforted.

Be the one who begins.

A Healing Prayer to St. Jude

Most holy Apostle, St. Jude, I place myself in your care. Pray for me; help me remember that I am not alone in my struggles. Please join me in asking God to send me hope in my sorrow, courage in my fear, and healing in the midst of my challenges. Please ask our loving God to fill me with the grace to accept whatever my life holds and to strengthen my faith in His healing power. Thank you, St. Jude, for the promise of hope you hold to all believe, and inspire me to give this gift of hope to others. Amen.
