Acceptance The Death of Illusion

Acceptance is one of the hardest forms of surrender because it crucifies the ego. It forces a person to face reality without excuses, denial, control, or self-deception. Acceptance does not mean approving of suffering or becoming passive. It means standing before God without masks and saying: "This is where I am. This is who I am. And still, I trust You." St Francis understood something rare: what we refuse to accept often becomes the very thing that enslaves us. But what we place into the hands of God can finally be transformed. Acceptance opens the soul to grace. It creates space for humility, patience, mercy, and trust.

* Stop arguing with reality. When something difficult happens, pause before reacting. Instead of immediately asking "Why?", first say: "Lord, help me receive this moment with peace."

* Accept your limitations without self-hatred. St Francis did not pretend to be strong all the time. Humility begins when we stop needing to appear perfect.

* Let go of controlling every outcome. Do your part faithfully, but stop carrying what belongs to God. Anxiety often grows from trying to control what we were never meant to hold.

* Receive correction without running away. Growth becomes possible when a person can hear truth without becoming defensive. Acceptance includes accepting the truth about ourselves.

* Practice gratitude in imperfect moments. Thank God not only for blessings, but also for the hidden work He is doing through challenges, delays, and uncertainty.

At some point the soul gets tired of fighting reality. Tired of forcing, controlling, pretending, escaping. St Francis discovered that peace begins when a person stops demanding that life obey them and starts trusting God inside the unknown. Acceptance is not weakness, it is inner poverty before God. It is the quiet death of the ego that needs certainty, control, and answers for everything. And strangely, when the soul finally lets go... that is often when grace enters.

2026 Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA)

PRAY FOR OUR VBS

Dear God, thank you for going before us as we prepare for VBS. Help us meet any need of supplies, decorations, and volunteers we may have. Provide the opportunity for families far and wide to attend VBS. Thank you for the opportunity to pour into the lives of these kids in deep and meaningful ways. We pray that above all else you are glorified in our VBS.

PRAY FOR OUR CHURCH

God, let our church be a great influence in our community through our VBS. We want your perfect love to be at the foundation of our city, and we pray that we spread your love. Let our doors be open and our hearts be welcoming to all kids and their families. Let your goodness shine through us.

PRAY FOR OUR KIDS

Jesus, we pray that through VBS, kids in our community will grow in their relationship with you. We ask that you begin to break down any walls that might be preventing their young hearts from receiving your love. We ask that the truth of who you are sinks deep into their hearts. Let them leave knowing who you are and the overwhelming, joyful love you have for each and every one of them. May the impact of VBS last a lifetime.

PRAY FOR VOLUNTEERS

Lord, please bring volunteers to serve at VBS. Fill their hearts with your love and patience to be poured out upon the kids. Give them strength, health, and an overwhelming joy to serve! We pray that our volunteers are given the opportunity to help children experience you and that they would grow closer to you!

PRAY FOR FAMILIES

Heavenly Father, let the changes in kids' hearts this week be an inspiration to their families. Let parents and caretakers pursue a deeper relationship with you. Let family connections grow stronger, deeper, and focused on you. Give kids strength to stand firmly rooted in their faith and relationship with you.

PRAY FOR OUR STAFF

Lord, be with our staff as they plan, prepare, and put on our VBS this year. Keep them healthy in body and mind before, during, and after VBS. Allow opportunities for them to share the good news of who you are with kids. Give them creative ideas to reach children, give them peace when times get stressful, and fill their hearts with joy as they faithfully complete your work.

Pray for us!
